VOL. VI. RENO. WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1878. NO. 48.

The Clothing War.

EDITOR GAZETTE: In the Journal of October 3d, I find an announcement signed L. Abrahams, of the White House. This announcement sets forth that other dealers in clothing keeps "humbug shops" and offer "unsalable goods" to the public. He also believes that these humbug dealers "lie to deceive the public." I represent, for my part of the humbuggery, Mr. Editor, I represent that when I offer "unsalable goods" I always suffer for it, and not Mr. Abrams. The people have worn my goods long enough to know better than Mr. Abrahams whether they com from a "humbug shop" or not. During my many years residence and business in Reno, I have made my own reputation and it is safe from the interested charges brought by this newcomer at the White House.

Now, whether I keep a humbug shop or not, I shall continue to sell the best goods in market and at the lowest rates. I shall SELL men and boys clothing cheaper than "Whitey" can BUY them. I shall keep more goods, and a finer stock always on hand. And all of these assertions, so far from being "lies to deceive the public" can be proven by my patrons during fair week as they have been proven any time during the past ten years.

M. NATHAN,
oct-7-tf Virginia Street.

The scarcity of diamonds, gold and silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value. Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kaiser's celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom, or put out a prairie fire with a tear. For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your druggists, OSBURN & SHOEMAKER, for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75-cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents. au7eod

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—I do no sell any goods 20 per cent. below cost, or even at cost, but I offer my first-class stock of clothing, furnishing goods, boots and shoes, hats and caps, trunks and valises, etc., which have been bought for cash at the lowest market rates. Therefore I wish the public to post themselves on my prices before going to the humbug shops where they are always drumming into the ear that they are selling at cost, or below cost. They either bought unsalable goods or they lie to deceive the public; they don't deserve to be patronized. Remember the One Price Store—The White House—No. 19 Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice. L. ABRAHAMS.

RENO AND SURPRISE VALLEY.—Calderwood & Kern's stages will leave Reno hereafter on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 3 o'clock A. M., and reach Bidwell, Surprise Valley, at 6 o'clock on the following days. Returning, will leave Willow Ranch at 7 A. M. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, arriving in Reno at 9 P. M. on the following days. Fare, $20 each way. Freight on baggage over 30 pounds, 8 cents per pound. Office at Hammond & Wilson's stable, opposite Railroad depot. JOHN WILSON, Agent.

SARAH POLLARD AGAIN

A singular development transpired at Fort Lincoln on Thursday. Mrs. Noonan, who died the night before, turned out to be a man. Mrs. Noonan was a laundress at the post, and a most popular midwife. She had been married three times, and was one of the widows of the Custer massacre. Her husband is a man of the Seventh cavalry, now in the field. There is no explanation of the unnatural union, except that the supposed woman was worth $10,000, and was able to buy her husband's silence. She had been with the Seventh cavalry for years.—Exchange.

The press seems to be full of ill-asserted marriages just now, and it must mean something. The woman's rights movement, which attempts to force man into sharing the domestic duties such as dish-washing, scrubbing, wood chopping and cow-milking, may have fitted man in a certain respect for the wifely duties.

The unfortunate matrimonial speculations of many men may have caused others to think that a frugal man who would wear calico was a better helpmate than the average woman.

Or, better still, it may be that Mother Shipton's prophecy is to be fulfilled to the better.

And the world to an end shall come in 1881.

The last grand symptom to be noted before the final crash may possibly be a general inter-marriage of man with man.

If is this to happen let the crash proceed.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Concerning Mrs. Ralston's difficulties and the suit commenced against her a word may be said. Mr. Ralston drowned, and his death caused the great banking institution of this coat to suspend, Mrs Ralston had no funds upon which to luxuriate and certain gentlemen rescued $175,000 from the wreck and made the widow a present of this sum. Come easy, go easy, is now proven in Mrs. Ralston's case. She desires to spend this money and the generous gentlemen aforesaid want a restraining order from the court. In our humble opinion, if these gentlemen ever gave Mrs. Ralston $175,000 they are very ungenerous to tell about it. In trying to prescribe the particular manner in which she must squander it, the aforesaid gentlemen are very foolish, as well as ungenerous, and Mrs. Ralston will miss a great opportunity if she does not throw away her money and get down to the wash-tub and light recreation of that sort. She may then learn what makes banks and stock markets. Practial experience is worth $200,000 to anybody.

After discussing the Chinese question a la Kearney, the young man of the Bulletin says:

No one can look at the question with the eye of a statesman without perceiving that this thing can not go on. The peaceful conquest of a great Aryan nation can not be accomplished by Asiatic hordes. There does not appear to be any escape from these conclusions.

The tranquil yet practical manner in which this insect uses his many eyes in gazing upon a great question excites wonder. He looks at the matter with a demagogue's eye, and the subject takes on inflamation. He writes it up under his journalistic eye and his view is tinged with popularity. Then he gets out his statesman-like eye, glares at his work and perceives that his imagination or his pen must stop. After this the glass eye of self-criticism falls upon the editorial birth and the young man closes all of his eyes and admits that he is captured by his own reasoning. The Bulletin man has loaned his studious eye to Pickering of the Call.

The Bulletin thinks that Chinese labor is inferior to white and so do we. The Bulletin's reason, however, is rather faulty. The Chinese have no families dependent upon their labor, says Parson Bartlett. True enough, but the families which are dependant upon white labor are not to be congratulated in these times, neither is it a recommendation that white laborers without work are always willing to burden themselves with dependents.

The Bulletin says that if the Chinese were allowed to vote, in one hundred years they would convert the United States into an appendage of China, substitute the books of Confucius for the Bible, and blot out Christian civilization.

Having more faith in American citizenship and less in the Chinese, than the Bulletin, we differ with that paper as usual. If John is ever given the ballot there will be war between him and his superiors. In one hundred days he would be done up in osseous packages, labeled and shipped according to his custom back to China. His vote would go with him.

The Truckee Republican, one of the very brightest papers on the coast, completed the seventh year of its life to-day. Under the management of Crowley & McGlashan the Republican is marked by good newspaper sense, intelligence enterprise and an industry in furthering the interests of Truckee which makes it a valuable property to the town. Mr. McGlashan, the editor, is a writer of force and wit and is guided in his conduct of the paper by sound journalist ideas. We are glad, but not at all surprised, to know that the Republican is prosperous financially.

A poor white man who travels on foot in search of work is a tramp—a vagabond—liable to be arrested and put in jail. But a Chinaman may wander all over the state without any one asking him his business.—S. F. Post.

The love of the Post man for pedestrian vagabondizing is now accounted for.

"What availeth a man if he gain the whole world and go through on three aces?" wails McGlashan of the Truckee Republican. Get your sleeve widened, man, get your sleeve widened. A wide sleeve and knowedge therewith overcometh the biggest three aces that were ever built.

A GIRL'S STRANGE FREAK.

She Dresses as a Boy and Goes to School.

[S. F. Post, Friday.]

James K. Wilson, principal of the Lincoln grammar school, was applied to about three weeks ago by a youngster, apparantly fifteen or sixteen years of age, who said that he had recently arrived from St. Louis, and wished to get an education, adding that he had a position where he could, by working morning and evening, earn his living. The young fellow had short, coarse black hair, and wore a light tweed sack suit and heavy boots and looked like a healthy lad. He gave the name of Edwin Stanton, and Mr. Wilson, feeling a kindly interest in him, placed him under the care of Mrs. James, who at once entered upon the task of teaching his young ideas how to shoot. Thus the matter stood until last Friday, when Mr. Wilson examined Mrs. James' class, and looked closely at young Stanton. At the close of the examination he said to Mrs. James that if the lad woul part his hair in the middle he would look exactly like a girl. Mrs. James said that she thought so, too. It was ascertained that the youngster never associated with the boys of the school, and was quiet, gentle and studious. Mr. Wilson, however, had his suspicions aroused as to the sex of this pupil, and spoke of the matter to a number of school directors, the result being that he invited the lad into the library and told him that he was a girl. The he now became a she, and after a little hesitation she acknowledged the soft impeachment, and explained that she had adopted the masquerade dress in order to get an education more easily. She declined to speak of her past life, further than to say that she was engaged for a month as a man servant in Madame Seitska's young ladies' seminary. The girl was induced to change the male for female attire, and last Monday afternoon she left Mr. Wilson, and has not since been seen by anyone connected with the school.

Pretty Big Hailstones.

A Mexican exchange gives an account of a fearful storm which swept over the rancho of Jesus Maria and vicinity, state of Coahuilla, on the 10th of last month. About 5 o'clock in the afternoon the clouds commenced to lower and soon the heavens became as black as night. A torrent or rain, accompanied by the most fearful storm and lightning, fell with terrible fury. The torrent continued for an hour with unabated force, when a shower of hailstones fell, some of which were nearly as large as oranges. During the time the mountains seemed to shake from their foundation and the earth appeared to tremble as if stricken by an earthquake. The next day's investigation showed that disastrous ravages had occurred. The vaqueros found whole herds of cattle beaten to death by the hailstones and flocks of sheep were decimated. The bodies of dead coyotes and many other wild animals were found down the valleys, evidently having fled from the mountains through fright. Crops suffered greatly and in one instance the hail literally covered an immense field. A number of human lives were lost. The storm was the most destructive and ffightful ever known in the state.

"This brave fellow," says a Chronicle reporter of the man that ran out of the room when Smith was about to murder Mrs. Smith, last night, "in the midst of the crowd that was brought to the scene, circulated among them with all the Savior faire of a man that had performed a brave deed." When Monsieur De Young sees that he will probably make the young journalist circulate with all the E Pluribus Unum of a reporter who is discoverd in the act of guying his senior proprietor.

A BLOODY DEED.

George M. Smith Deliberately Murders His Wife—Her Refusal to Live with Him Because of His Ill Treatment the Cause.

[S. F. Post, Friday.]

A horrible murder took place at the lodging house No. 644 Sacramento street, yesterday afternoon about half-past four o'clock, the murderer being George M. Smith, a cooper by trade and forty-one years of age, and the victim his wife, Christina, a daughter of J. Shieler, chief engineer of the Antioch distillery. The two were married about nine years ago, and four children had been born to them, all of whom had died. For a long time past Smith has been addicted to drink, and has neglected his work and ill used his wife that she twice applied for a divorce. At one time she was forced to hire out as a nurse to obtain subsistence. She withdrew both divorce suits on his promises to reform, but recently he became again so violent that she was forced to leave their home on Rausch street and go to work with a family in the western part of the city. Four weeks ago she left this place and went to the house on Sacramento street, which was kept by a friend of hers, Mrs. Hotop. Smith found out her whereabouts and endeavored several times to obtain an interview, but was put off each time, Mrs. Smith meanwhile instituting proceedings for a divorce, and signing the papers only yesterday. Her mother called on her yesterday afternoon, and a few moments after her departure

THE HUSBAND PUT IN AN APPEARANCE.

She met him in the hall and refused to let him go to her room. He declaired that she need not be afraid of him, as he had no pistol and nothing with which he could injure her. He went away, but returned shortly afterward and went to Miss Hotop's room, and wanted to see his wife with regard to bringing her some of her clothes. She told him, through the shut door, to leave them in the hall. He opened the door, which was not locked, and was told to keep out, as Miss Hotop was dressing. He said, "Christian, I want you to come with me," and she replied. "I will not." After waiting a little longer he opened the door, and found her looking at a photograph album. He caught her by the shoulder and asked, "Christian, are you going with me?" She replied "no," and as she uttered the word he placed a pistol at the side of her head and fired. Miss Hotop screamed and jumped through a window to an adjacent roof. As she did so Smith but at whom she could not tell. He fired a third at himself, the bullet passing through the breast of his coat and vest grazing his shirt, but doing him no injury. He then ran down stairs and walked towards Montgomery street, pistol in hand. I. S. Locke arrested him, calling special officer Louis Levy to his assistance when Smith began to resist. He was shortly afterward locked up in the new prison on a charge of murder. There were three empty shells in his revolver. He refused to make any statement, saying that he was not in the proper condition of mind to do so. He expressed regrets that he had not killed himself.

FIRED A SECOND SHOT,

The prisoner was arraigned in the police court this morning and waved examination. Miss Hotop was placed on the stand, as a formality, to establish the fact of the murder, and the accused was held to answer before the grand jury without bail.

Unhappy Peru.

PANAMA, Nov. 12.—In Peru the ministerial crisis is at an end, but the effect upon the business interests of the country is not as cheering as was anticipated. The newly-appointed Ministers are men of ability, but their hands are tied. Congress places every possible obstacle in the way of the government, and it is impossible for the ministers to act energetically and independently. Reforms of all kinds are delayed, and important matters, such as the guano and nitrate interests, are made the subject of profitless discussion. Among business men the opinion is becoming general that they will never resume the payment of interest on the foreign debt. The country is bankrupt.

Explosion in a Coal Mine.

SULLIVAN, Pa., Nov. 21.—A terrible explosion occurred at the Sullivan coal mine to-day, caused by the ignition of gas. Terrific effect was added by the fact of there being eight kegs of powder below. There were thirty men in the mine at the time. The scene beggars description. Thirteen were killed outright, eight or ten wounded, and many of the others are suffering so from suffocation that their lives hang by a thread. The excitement is so great that it is impossible to get at the names of the unfortunates. Thomas and Samuel Handford, two of the proprietors, are known to be killed.

Then—Now.

[Gold Hill News.]

Last week—Man goes across street to take drink; holds Sierra Nevada, 197; calls up all hands; throws down coin; won't take change; everybody envious; all say: "Lucky dog."

This week—Same man goes across street to take drink; holds notice from broker; more mud on Sierra Nevada margin; 58; shakes barkeep; gets stuck; hangs it up; everybody jeering; all say: "Poor devil."

A Chicago Theif Captured in Lisbon.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22d.—A cablegram has just been received by George M. Pullman from the American Consul at Lisbon, Portugal, stating that Charles W. Angell, the defaulting secretary of the Pullman palace car company, has been arrested there, and that $80,000 of the stolen money was found on his person. It is believed there will be little difficulty in securing his extradition.

JOTTINGS.

— Mrs. J. C. Hagerman is convalescing.

— Lecture on Romanism to-morrow evening in the M. E. church.

— Major E. E. Underwood is still tied to his bed at Wadsworth with rheumatism.

— The Indian maidens find amusement and hearty exercise this cold weather in grand wrestling matches.

— Only about six weeks left now in which to get ready to hunt up the old ones, or make fresh New Year's resolutions.

— Judge Richardson hasn't had a criminal case in more than a week and the three lovely prisoners in the county jail are begining to feel hurt about it.

—Don't fail to go to church to-morrow. It is a much better way of spending your time than wondering how Sierra Nevada will show up on Monday.

— The most enthusiastic givers of thanks on Thursday next will be the Sierra Nevada sufferers. They will also make a few marginal notes on the prayer book.

—Lovewell, the photographer is going to leave us for a time. No more negatives will be taken after to-morrow. He goes to Virginia City, where the quality of his work will doubtless bring him lots of business.

— Colonel Willes, the well-known stock operator, has returned from a visit to the Comstock, where he has been examining the mines, and may now be seen at George Becker's by those who desire points.

A Beautiful Meteor.

A meteor of great size and beauty shot into sight last evening about 8 o'clock in the northern heavens. It's course was from east to west and it decribed a graceful curve in its rapid course towards the horizon. In apparent size the heavenly wanderer was about as large as one's hat and threw off a flood of violet light which illuminated the whole sky and brought people running to their doors. The body of the meteor itself was a glowing mass of intense white surrounded by an orange corona. When it sank out of sight there was left behind a wake of fire which did not fade out for at least ten seconds. Quite a number of prominent citizens who saw the phenomenon swore off upon the spot and will hereafter vote the Republican ticket.

Modest Merit Tells.

[Eureka Leader.]

Mr Alexander announces his retirement from the Reno GAZETTE on December 1st. He is an enterprising journalist, and we wish him success wherever he may locate. We hope Mac will be retained by the new owners. He is, without exception, the most brilliant writer connected with the Nevada press.

IT'S TOO EXCITING.

This Life Upon the Frontier - The whirl in Reno.

These are exciting times in Reno. A leading citizen along Commercial Row with his hands in his trousers' pockets and his elbows sticking out, there not being the least danger of running them into everybody's stomach, for he has pleny of room on the street. Another leading citizen slowly smoking a cigar with his hands on his hips, sees him coming and leans up against an awning post to await his languid approach. No. 1 arrives, hitches on by his elbows to a dry-goods box behind him and neds.

No.1 (yawning)— Well how does she go?

No.2 (also yawning)—Oh, so-so.

No. 1 (scratching his jaw and wrinkling his brow reflectively)— Kinder slow, aint it?

No. 2 (with some annimation)—Slow! Well, I should say it was.

No. 1 — Slowest I ever see. It's worse than Seventy-five.

No. 2 — Seventy five! Well, I should say it was. It beats hell.

No. 1 (After a pause in which he looks up at the awning and then looks down and spits at a passing dog, which jerks his tail suddenly between his legs, and drops his ears and curves his back and jumps sideways)— Good idea this of doin' business on a cash basis after the first, eh?

No. 2 (relieving his back by shifting a little his position against the post)—First-rate. There's too much credit in Washoe. It kills business.

No. 1 — Of course good men will get thirty days or so.

No. 2 — Oh, of course.

No. 1 (rising to an upright and stretching his arms above his head and closing his eyes and opening his mouth so wide that a small boy stands stock still and gazes at it with his own nearly as bad) —Well, I must begoin'.

No. 2 (Also stretching himself and then looking with suddenly aroused intrest in his finger nails) — Well, I guess I must be stirrin' round myself.

No. 1 (replacing his hands in his pockets)—Well, so-long.

No. 2 (freeing himself with a sigh from the post) — Well, I'll see you again.

Then they both dragged themselves off in opposite directions and float up against the next acquaintance and excite themselves over again as above. The maddened rush and feverish strife of this modern life is killing us.

A Wild Chase.

Last night a tall gentleman with an ulster on his arm, spectacles on his nose and a plug hat on his head, came down on the Virginia train and went into the depot restaurant to refresh his interior. He must have been very hungry for the warning bell and the "all aboard" which announced the departure of the lightning for the bay did not disturb him. The rumble of the train did, however, for he started up and dashed out of the door just as the last car was flitting past. Now the lightning train pulls out very rapidly and no man on legs can catch it if the last car has six feet the start of him. The tall man in spectacles did not know this, apparently, for he gave chase at once, leaping frantically along the track, yelling "Hi!" at every other jump. His hat fell off, he threw away his ulster and yelled and tore after the train for a distance of five hundred yards. Then he sat down to get his wind, and presently walked back, recovered his property, and announced to the smiling crowd at the depot that he could lick any grinning idiot in Reno. Then he went to the telegraph office and telegraphed to his no doubt alarmed wife that he would follow her on the next train.

All Settled.

We are happy to inform the readers of the GAZETTE that our retiring state officers are to be provided for in new fields of usefulness where their great abilities will be exerted as heretofore for the benefit of mankind. As near as can be learned they will be occupied as follows after January 1st.

L. R. Bradley will join McGinley's opera troupe and star it.

J. R. Kittrell will act as auctioneer for Curry of Virginia.

Jerry Schooling will enter the lecture field with J. D. Minor as his agent. Headquaters at Reno.

General Day is going to tuning pianos.

Mike Yager has bought a hay press which he will run with W. W. Hobart as cashier.

Wm. Garratt will be short-hand clerk for Dennis Kearney.

S. P. Kelly has secured the majority of the stock in Ogden's keno bank. Bible class meets at 3 P. M.

Harry Day will act as runner for the Ormsby house.

Charley Martin and W. T. Hawford will start a bank.

New Chinatown.

New Chinatown is begining to look a good deal like the old one. Several new houses are being built on the north side and several sellars are also being dug, showing that more shanties are soon to go up. The favorite pig is numerously at home in the street, the tan game is in progress, the squeak of the one-string fiddle is heard and the rattle of the deadened drum likewise; the flattened and roasted duck, and the embrowned porker are hung out for sale, the painted female leers through the small window and all is as the Mongolian soul could desire.

Notice.

On account of being so far behind in my negatives and leaving soon for Virginia I will positively not make any after Sunday, 23d inst.

GEO. H LOVEWELL.

HARD WORKED DOGS.

The Heavy Labors which Engage Watch and Butch.

Hagerman's stub-tailed dog Watch used to have altogether too much work to do. He considered it his duty to keep free from all strange dogs that part of Reno embraced in the territory over which his eye swept while seated on the sidewalk in front of the store. The labor of doing this was very fatiguing, for sometimes the strange dog did not take to flight with Watch at his heels. When the invader stood his ground, not at all frightened by the furious and ferocious rush, Watch would look straight ahead and fly past the bristling stranger, and, like a base hypocrite, pick up a stick as if that were what he had been after, and trot back to the store with it, cheerfully and innocently ignoring the surprised enemy. Within the past few months Watch has been relieved of his guard over that part of the public domain lying on Sierra and Plaza streets on this side of the railroad by Butch, the young bulldog belonging to Smith the butcher. Watch has a great respect for Butch and views his performances with smiling admiration, the smile having a conciliatory cast, which shows that Watch would much rather be on friendly terms with such a formidable character than not. Butch sits on a dry goods box in front of his master's shop and keeps up from morning till night a vigilant survey of the field. He hails all comers with a growl. No dog is permitted to pass with tail up and ears erect. All such are seized and rolled in the dirt and chewed into a proper frame of mind. Up to a certain point Butch is considerate. Newfoundlands are allowed passage through the hostile country by saluting with tail at half mast. Smaller dogs which decline to instantly do homage are rushed at and usually fall upon their backs and beg for mercy while Butch travels aronnd them with blood-curdling slowness. During the progress of the scenes Watch is thrown into a state of feverish excitement. He darts to the railroad track, the limit of his territory, and observes proceedings with an agony of interest, rising and sitting down again and drumming with his fore paws and craning his neck and yelping with eager sympathy. Unless a fight actually takes place he does not venture nearer, for while Butch very frequently hunts business on Watch's ground. Watch was only once guilty of returning the aggression and he bears the marks of it to this day. Frequently visits are permitted but Butch will stand no interference with his professional interests. Sounds indicate that a case is being tried in the Sierra court at this minute.

Ten minutes later—A prettier fight was never seen. That ruffain, Butch has nearly killed a big St. Bernard. Watch was injudicious enough to permit his excitement to carry him the length of offering a tooth to his friend. This assistance Butch resented by letting the St. Bernard crawl off and walloping Watch unmercifully. That sorer and wiser humbug is lying in the sun safe within bounds licking his wounds thoughtfully.

601 in Truckee.

[Truckee Republican.]

This mystical and all powerful body, the terror of evildoers, issued tickets of leave to two Chinamen this week, Charley Sing, a well known interpreter and fighting man, and Ah One, a noted burglar, schemer and rascal, were ordered to leave town in twenty-four hours under penalty of death. These two worthies have been Fong Bee's right bowers during all his opposition to the whites. They are, so to speak, his Chinese legal advisers. Upon receiving their notices, Ah One skipped out instanter, and Charlie Sing left yesterday or day before. It is doubtful if 601 ever issued notices to Chinamen before, but the celestials appear to have a very correct idea of the import of the warnings. From what we can ascertain the feeling which prompted the notices was that these non-property holding Chinamen were using all means in their power to thwart the wishes of the safety committee. The effect of their departure will be a peaceable removal of the Chinese across the river. Ah One has served one or two terms in jail, and has the reputation of being a bad Chinaman.

No Trouble Probably in Truckee.

It is not probable that there will be any trouble in Truckee to-day. The Chinamen have come to the conclusion not to risk a trial of strength and are obeying the command to skip. The Republican of to-day says that the new Chinatown across the river is growing very rapidily. Forty Chinamen at work on one house is no unusual sight. All the Chinamen are moving. From River, Bridge, Main and High streets they are clearing away their fire-rafts, and congregating over the river. The citizens gave them until to-day to get out, and most of them have obeyed. Any who remain will be vigorously dealt with.

Lecture on Spiritualism.

Mrs. P. W. Stevens, will deliver a lecture at McGinley's Opera House on Sunday evening the 24th instant at 7:30 o'clock. Subject "Spiritism—its pretentions and teachings." Mrs. Stevens lectures while under spirit control and in trance state or condition. This lecture will be the first of a series to be given under the auspices of the Order of Progressive Spiritualists of Reno, Nevada. Admission free.

Lecture.

Mrs. Lake will repeat her lecture on Romanism in America at the M. E. Chrrch to-morrow (Sunday) evening Seats free.

An Affecting Incident.

This afternoon an old lady decently dressed, though poorly, attracted considerable attention on Virginia street by weeping as she walked along. Mark Parish, always kind hearted, stepped up to her and gently asked the cause of her trouble.

"Trouble!" exclaimed the old lady, looking up in surprise at the sympathetic crowd which had gathered around her, "Why I have no trouble specially to speak of."

"But," said Mark, "these tears?"

"Are of joy, my son," replied the old lady and she whispered a few words in a low tone and went on her way.

"What did she say?" demanded everybody eagerly.

"She said," returned Mark with a puzzled expression, "that she was crying for joy because the WEEKLY GAZETTE, which contains over 43 columns of reading matter, is new only $2 50 a year."

Everybody was deeply affected.

News from England.

[Liverpool Mercury.]

Just now Rose Eytinge is the theatrical rage. She is an American lady who plays Nancy Sikes in a dramatic version of Dickens' novel. But few people identify her as a personage once in American politics. She is, or was, the wife of General Butler, "the fire-eating American statesman." When he represented his country in Egypt it was said that Mrs. Butler did all his consular work. Now she has to take to the stage for a living.

NEW DEPARTURE.—On and after December 1st, 1878, the store of Manning & Duck will be conducted on a cash basis. Every customer will be compelled to pay for his own goods. No extra profits for bad debts. We propose to sell goods cheaper than they have ever been sold in this market. We are compelled to this important step by several weighty reasons: First, we wish to encourage prompt payment. Second, the prompt payer should not be compelled to pay an extra profit for the slow customer or the man that never pays. Third and most important reason, we are not able to carry so large an amount of capital on our books and keep up our stock of goods. Good gilt edge customers will be allowed a credit of thirty days. If by agreement longer time is given, interest of 1½ per cent a month will be charged. A. H. MANNING.

N. B. The old accounts of Manning & Duck must be settled by cash or note by the 1st of January or they will be placed in the hands of a collector for collection.

A. H. MANNING.

CLOTHING.—Grand Reopening of the White House, next door to Postoffice. the Having purchased the entire stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishing Goods of Messrs. Cohen & Isaacs, and made a large addition thereto, I am prepared to sell this clothing at lower rates than any merchant in Reno. I respectfully solicit the patronage of the public, and am convinced that on the examination of my stock, and the price at which I sell, that no person who gives me a call will go away empty handed.

MECHANICS' STORE.

DOWN WITH THE GRABBERS

NO MORE SWINDLING!
NO MORE CHEATING!
NO MORE EXTORTION

It now lies within the reach of every hard-working Farmer, Miner and Mechanic to obtain his necessities at their realvalue, and quit enriching the grabbing and unscrupulous Store-keepers who do not hesitate to take the last penny from a hard-working man, woman or child.

THE MECHANICS' STORE

Whose reputation for straightforwardness and square dealing is known far and wide, and needs no further comment, employs an army of clerks for the sole purpose of filling COUNTRY ORDERS, and thousands living outside of Sacramento avail themselves of this chance, do all their buying by sending orders direct to the Mechanies' Store, and thereby avoid paying enormous prices to the merciless grabbers who infest every city and town on the coast.

The method upon which the Mechanics' Store is conducted is universally known; yet, for the benefit of some who may not know, we will here repeat it. It is as follows: Every article in the house is bought at the lowest market rates, to which only a small profit is added. The price once fixed is marked in plain figures on every article, and in never deviated from, thus giving the poor judge of goods a chance to suyply his wants as low as the most expert buyer.

Nothing is Misrepresented! No Faults are Concealed!

All are treated alike—a person living 500 miles away sending an order obtains the goods at precisely the same prices as customers who are present to select for themselves. All goods are cheerfully exchanged, and in cases where nothing suitable can be found the money will be willingly refunded.

OUR FALL STOCK

Is rapidly coming in, and will shortly be complete in all departments, which consists of Men's and Boys' Clothing, Dry and Dress Goods, Fancy Goods, Notions, Men's Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, Millinery, Boots and Shoes, Trunks, and Valises, Chromos, Pictures and Frames.

FELLOW'S

COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THIS DISCOVERY

Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy."

One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power. This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs which depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker suffering first.

The Inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from those maladies.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—

Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhœa,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholy,
Nervous Debility.

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other low fevers, Diphtheritic Prostration, Hysteria, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Sluggishness of the Liver, Interrupted and Feeble Action of the Heart, SUFFOCATING FEELINGS caused by mucous obstruction of the Lungs and Air Passages leading thereto, and Debility from various causes.

Indigestiveness and habitual Costiveness almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine.

Weakness of the JOINTS and MUSCLES, IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, and INWARD WASTINGS may be cured by attention to the regular described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS'

Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites

The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the large sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public

This syrup will cure PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life in the third. It will cure ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LARYNGITIS and COUGHS. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.

Notice to Creditors.

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT Court of the State of Nevada in and for the county of Washoe—In the matter of the petition of Newman Chilson, an insolvent debtor. Pursuant to an order of the Honorable S. H. Wright, Judge of the said District Court, notice is hereby given to all the creditors of said insolvent Newman Chilson to be and appear before the Honorable S. H. Wright aforesaid, in open court at the court-room of said court, in Reno, Washoe county, State of Nevada, on the eighteenth day of November, A. D. 1878, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, then and there to show cause, if any they can, why the prayer of said insolvent should not be granted, and an assignament of his estate be made and he be discharged from his debts and liabilities, in pursuance of the statute in such cases made and provided, and in the meantime all proceedings against said insolvent be stayed.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this 15th day of October, A. D. 1878.

SEAL.

P. B. COMSTOCK,
Clerk.
